Important Facts Concerning Information Provided on Your Application

Minnesota law affects you as an applicant for employment with the City of Albertville. The following data is public information and is accessible to anyone: Veteran's Status, relevant test scores, rank on eligibility list, job history, education and training, and work availability. All other personally identified information is considered private, including, but not limited to, your name, home address and phone number.

If you are selected as a finalist for a position, your name will become public information. You become a finalist if you are selected to be interviewed by the City.

The information requested on this application is necessary, either to identify you or to assist in determining your suitability for the position for which you are applying. You may legally refuse, but refusal to supply the requested information will mean that your application may not be considered.

If you are selected for employment with the City, the following additional information about you will be public: your name; actual gross salary range; contract fees; actual gross pension; the value and nature of your fringe benefits; the basis for and the amount of any added remuneration, such as expenses or mileage reimbursement, in addition to your salary; your job title; the dates of your first and last employment with the City; the status of any complaints or charges against you while at work; the final outcome of any disciplinary action taken against you, specific reasons for it, and all supporting documentation about your case; terms of any agreement setting administrative or judicial proceedings; your work location and work telephone number, honors/awards received; payroll time sheets; your city and county of residence. Anything not listed above which is placed in your personnel file (such as medical information, letters of recommendation, resumes, etc.) is made private information by law. For further information refer to Minnesota Statute Chapter 13.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING

The City of Albertville has adopted a drug and alcohol testing policy for truck drivers. As a job applicant for this position, you are subject to testing under the policy and may be asked to provide a urine specimen after you have received a conditional offer of employment. You may legally refuse to undergo a drug or alcohol test. If you refuse, the City's conditional offer of employment may be withdrawn. If you undergo an initial screening test with a positive test result, a confirmatory test, verifying that result, must be performed.

You may have the right to explain a confirmatory test's positive result within three working days after receiving notice. You have the right to request and pay for a confirmatory retest of the original sample within five working days after receiving notice. If the confirmatory test does not confirm the original positive test result, no adverse personnel action based on the confirmatory test may be taken against you. A job applicant who receives a positive test result, fails or refuses a confirmatory test, and does not request in writing a confirmatory test within five working days after notice, may be refused employment and will be notified of the reason for such refusal. Except as otherwise noted, the job applicant has no additional right of appeal within the City of Albertville

Employment Application

The full Drug and Alcohol testing personnel policy is available for review in the City Administrator's office at City Hall, 5959 Main Avenue NE, Albertville, MN 55301, during normal office hours. A job applicant receiving a conditional offer of employment will be given a full policy prior to testing.

AUXILIARY AIDS AND ASSISTANCE

If you have a job-related disability and require a reasonable accommodation to compete in the application process, please contact the City Administrator's office at City Hall, 5959 Main Avenue NE, Albertville, MN 55376, during normal office hours, or phone (763) 497-3384.

AUTHORIZATION AND RELEASE

I hereby authorize the entities and persons listed above to release to the City of Albertville, and any agent acting on its behalf, data classified as private. The data which I authorize to be released consists of private data, as defined by Minnesota Statute Ch. 13.02, subd. 12, and has been or will be collected by the City of Albertville and/or its agent and/or its representatives. The information for which release is authorized includes all data, which has been collected, created, received, retained or disseminated in whatever form, which in any way is related to employment. I fully understand the purpose of permitting the City of Albertville to have access to this information is to determine my suitability for employment.

This authorization shall be valid for one (1) year, but I reserve the right to, at any time prior to expiration, cancel this authorization by providing written notice to the City Administrator. I also acknowledge that a photocopy of this authorization may be used instead of the original and that a photocopy shall be considered as valid as the original.

I hereby declare that all statements made in this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I understand that any false information on or omission of information from this application, or failure to present the required proofs, upon discovery will be cause for rejection or dismissal if employed. The City of Albertville has the right to verify all information provided in this application.

I release all parties from any and all liability and claims for damages, whatsoever, that may result therefrom.
